Among the names of the donors of the largest and most beautiful monument ever given by the Middlesex at the U. S. Naval Academy is that of Miss Olivia Baldwin, of this county. They were twenty-nine couples on the floor of the massive new armory, all of them being graduates who two days later were handed their diplomas by President Roosevelt, who they scattered off the seas. In one of the figures the Middlesex donated with their swords on and at its completion the fair ladies passed beneath the ninety bright lights, presenting a spectacle both martial and beautiful. The favors for the ladies in this series were miniature war medals. All the favors were beautiful and costly. Miss Baldwin writes her friends that she will treasure her new medal as a keepsake.

Another of the donors well known in Richmond was Miss Margaretta Smith, who was among the graduates, and is about to begin his first sea duty on the new armored cruiser Colorado.
